

Golden Transitions

Friday March 20 at 12:30 PM

Planning for the future doesn't have to feel overwhelming. Whether you're thinking about staying in your home, downsizing, or simply getting organized for the years ahead, this free educational seminar is designed to give you clarity, options, and peace of mind. Join us for a relaxed, informative conversation focused on helping you make thoughtful decisions – at your own pace.

Is This Seminar Right for You?

You may find this helpful if you're asking:

- What are my options as I plan for the future?
- Should I stay in my home, rightsize, or consider a move?
- How can I make my home safer and easier to live in?
- What should I know about planning for future care costs?
- What legal documents should I have in place?
- How do I avoid rushed or costly decisions later?

What We'll Cover

- ✓ Aging-in-place and right-sizing options
- ✓ Home safety tips and simple modifications
- ✓ Financial tools and resources – explained clearly
- ✓ Estate planning basics for peace of mind
- ✓ How to make decisions that align with your goals

Meet Your Panel of Trusted Local Experts

Debbie Huscher – Senior Real Estate Specialist, Tanya Bottaro - Realtor

- Dave Beckman – Mortgage Professional
- Marc D'Orvilliers – Home Safety Handyman
- Kristen Prout – Elder Law & Estate Planning Attorney

This is an educational, no-pressure event.

No sales. No obligation. Just trusted information, open conversation, and time for questions.

Bring a friend – all are welcome.